

UNIT 6 :Normalisation and Development Team Project: Report

On completion of this unit I was able to:

- Discuss the construction and terminology associated with creating a database.
- Identify technical terminology used in the construction of a relational database.
- Be familiar with the process involved in creating a logical database design.
- Evaluate the requirements for creating a physical architecture database design.
- Analyse and evaluate the requirements and limitations for creating a physical design.
- Understand the fundamentals of normalisation.

The screenshot shows a web browser with multiple tabs open, including 'Topic: e-Portfolio', 'Topic: Unit 6 | Deci...', 'Seminars: Unit 7 Se...', 'W3Schools SQL Q...', 'Deciphering Big D...', 'DBD_PCOM7E No...', and a plus sign for more tabs. The address bar shows the URL 'my-course.co.uk/course/view.php?id=10956§ion=13'. The page header includes the University of Essex logo, the word 'Online', and navigation links: 'Home', 'Dashboard', 'My Modules', and a menu icon. A search bar with the text 'Search' and a 'Recent' dropdown is also present. A notification bell icon and a user profile icon labeled 'SM' are on the right. A green 'Done' button is visible in the top right corner. The main content area features a purple sidebar menu icon. The primary heading is 'Formative Activities | 8 hrs'. Below this, there are three instructions: 'Review this week's Lecturecast.', 'Prepare for next week's seminar by reviewing the preparation material available in Unit 7.', and 'Contribute to the Module Wiki with any new information or helpful reading.' The next section is 'Assessment | 10 hrs'. It contains two items, each with a pink document icon: 'Development Team Project: Project Report' and 'Project Report: Peer Review'. To the right of these items are two green status boxes: '✓ Done: Make a submission' and '✓ Done: Receive a grade'. A purple icon of a pencil is next to the second status box. At the bottom right, there is a purple button labeled 'Knowledge Base' and a small purple icon of an upward arrow.
